Even though Hurricane Fran damaged the outside of the Chapel, it didn't stop the worshiping inside.

Fran the Hurricane

One day all was calm at Louisburg College. Everything was going right, and all was well. Then Hurricane Fran came and put things into a whole new perspective. The students were either in their rooms trying to sleep out the storm or outside to playing in the weather. Later the students found that playing in a storm wasn't a good idea. Fortunately, there were only a few minor injuries. Even though the hurricane took many valuable things from people, it brought them closer together.

Broken down trees and power lines obstruct the view of the Taft Class room building.
